

Figure 8. Cumulative masking index for sender populations of fin, right and bowhead whales for a hypothetical situation in the Bering Sea as a result of noise from one ship, the M/V New England and sounds from a seismic airgun array. Samples were taken every 5 seconds over a 10 minute period in order to show the temporal details of airgun pulses on the masking index.